ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 32 is Hebrew. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- Hebrew is read from right to left, like the Qur'an. The tracing rows on each page also start on the right.
- CAPITALS show the stressed part of the word: BA-yit means "say BA a little louder". Many Hebrew words are stressed on the last part: kha-LON, ri-MON.
- Vowels are short and pure: a as in "father", e as in "bed", i as in "ski", o as in "more", u as in "put".
- kh is a scratchy sound from the back of the throat, as in Scottish "loch" or Arabic خ.
- r is soft and made at the back of the throat, a little like a gargle.

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Hebrew name written in Hebrew (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The third box shows the letter's different shapes and sounds: a dot that changes the sound (בּ b / ב v), its special end-of-word shape, or a look-alike letter to watch out for.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow everyday modern Hebrew.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Hebrew! עִבְרִית

iv-RIT — the Hebrew word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 9 million people speak Hebrew, as a first or second language.[3]

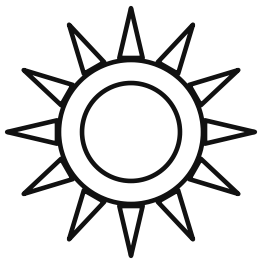

Where?
Hebrew is spoken mainly in Israel, on the eastern coast of the Mediterranean Sea, and by families and communities in many other countries.

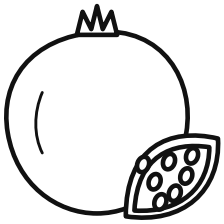

How is it written?
From right to left, in the Hebrew alphabet. The letters do not join, and five of them have a special shape at the end of a word.

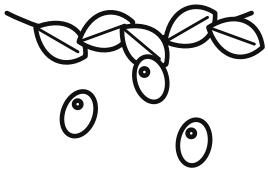

How many letters?
22 letters, all of them consonants. Vowels are small dots and lines added under and above the letters.

Cousins: Hebrew and Arabic
Both belong to the same family of languages, so many words are alike: שָׁלוֹם shalom and سلام salaam (peace); שֶׁמֶשׁ shemesh and شمس shams (sun).

Did you know?
The name alef-bet comes from the first two letters, א alef and ב bet — just like Arabic alif, baa' and English "alphabet".

THE WHOLE ALPHABET

The Hebrew Alphabet הָאָלֶף־בֵּית

22 letters – הָאוֹתִיּוֹת

א A-lef	ב bet	ג GI-mel	ד DA-let	ה hey	ו vav
ז ZA-yin	ח khet	ט tet	י yod	כ kaf	ל LA-med
מ mem	נ nun	ס SA-mekh	ע A-yin	פ pey	צ TSA-di
ק kof	ר resh	ש shin	ת tav

Read the alphabet from right to left, row by row — the same order as in this book. Five letters have an end form for the last letter of a word: ך ם ן ף ץ (kaf, mem, nun, pey, tsadi).

The circle shows the eastern Mediterranean on the world map.

Where is Hebrew spoken?

Color it: the land green · the sea blue. Find it: Hebrew is spoken in cities such as Haifa, Tel Aviv, Be'er Sheva and Eilat, on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

The Letters הָאוֹתִיּוֹת

ha-o-ti-YOT — “the letters”

Hebrew is written from right to left. Open your book at any letter page and start reading on the right!

Letters stand apart

Hebrew letters do not join — each letter keeps its own shape, like printed blocks. All 22 letters are consonants.

Five letters change at the end of a word

Five letters have a special end form (sofit). It is the same sound, just a different shape:

צ ← ץ	פ ← ף	נ ← ן	מ ← ם	כ ← ך
tsadi	pey	nun	mem	kaf

Most of them stretch a long leg below the line. Look for them on their letter pages!

A dot can change the sound

בּ b / ב v · כּ k / כ kh · פּ p / פ f · שׁ sh / שׂ s

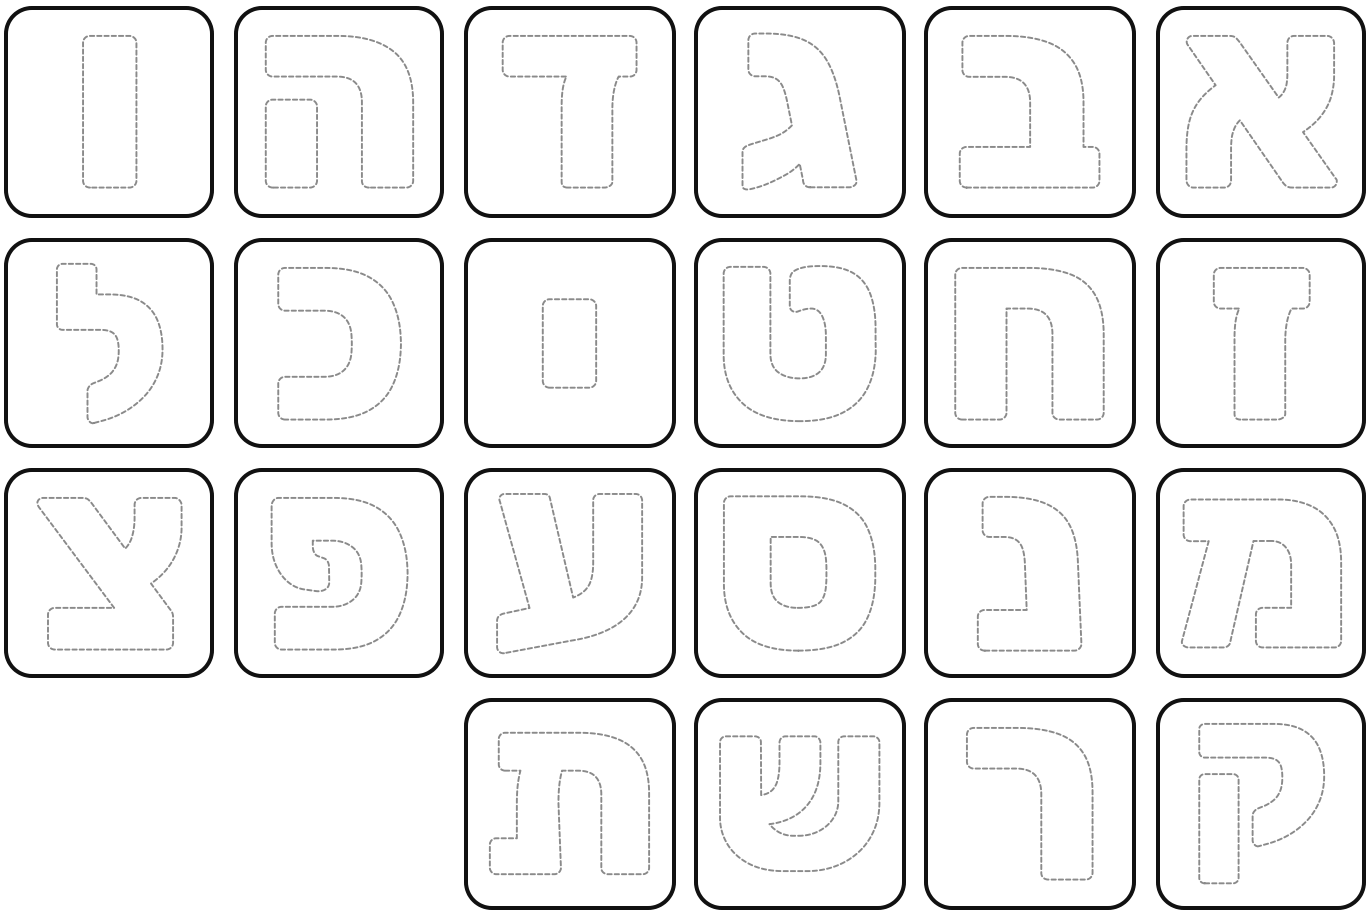

Vowels are dots and lines

Small marks under and above the letters (niqqud) show the vowels: בַ ba · בֶ be · בִ bi · בֹ bo · בֻ bu. Children’s books use them; grown-ups usually leave them out. The words in this book have them.

PENCIL WARM-UP

Trace the letters הָאוֹתִיּוֹת

Use a pencil. Say each letter's name as you trace it.
