ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 47 is Thai. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- Doubled vowels are long: aa as in "father", ii as in "see", uu as in "moon", ee as in "they", oo as in "go". A single vowel is short and quick.
- h after a letter (kh, th, ph, ch) means "add a puff of breath". th is never the English "th" of "the", and ph is never 'f'.
- g, dt, bp are sounds between English pairs: g (ก) is between g and k, dt (ต) between d and t, bp (ป) between b and p — like the k, t, p in "skip, stop, spin", with no puff.
- aw is the vowel in "saw"; eu is 'oo' said with a smile; ae is the 'a' in "cat".
- Tones are not shown in the English letters. Thai has five tones: listen and copy!

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Thai name written in Thai (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Thai phonetics spells the letter with the vowel า the way Thai children do (ก + า = กา), and says whether it is a middle-, high- or low-class letter and what it sounds like at the end of a word. In Part 2 it shows each vowel sign with ก.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow standard (Central) Thai as spoken in Bangkok.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Thai! ภาษาไทย

phaa-saa thai — the Thai word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 60 million people speak Thai, as their first or second language.[3]

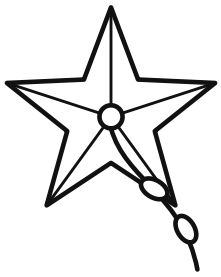

Where?
In Thailand, in Southeast Asia, and by Thai families all around the world.

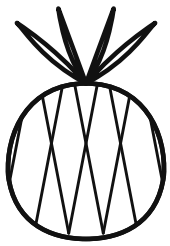

How is it written?
In the Thai script, from left to right. Words are written without spaces between them — a space shows the end of a phrase.

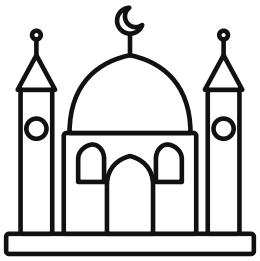

How many letters?
44 consonants, many vowel signs and four tone marks. This book teaches the 44 consonants and 19 main vowels.

Tones
Thai has five tones. ใกล้ glai (near) and ไกล glai (far) differ only in their tune!

Did you know?
Thai has its own numbers: ๐ ๑ ๒ ๓ ๔ ๕ ๖ ๗ ๘ ๙. You can color them at the back of this book.

Read the consonants row by row, from ก to ฮ — the same order as in this book. Then read the vowels.

The circle shows Thailand on the world map.

Where is Thai spoken?

Color it: the land green · the seas blue. Find it: Thai is spoken all over Thailand: in Bangkok ★ by the Gulf of Thailand, in Chiang Mai in the northern hills, in Khon Kaen, and in Phuket and Hat Yai in the south.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

PART 1

The Consonants พยัญชนะ

pha-yan-cha-na — "the consonants"

Thai has 44 consonants. Thai children learn them in this order, each with its own name word: ก ไก่ gaw gai, ข ไข่ khaw khai, ค ควาย khaw khwaai... Two of them, ฃ and ฅ, are no longer used in words, but they keep their place in the alphabet.

Our picture words

Many name words are animals or people (chicken, snake, child...). This book draws only objects, plants and nature, so for those letters we picked another word with the same letter. The page always tells you the real name word.

Three families of letters

Every consonant is middle-class, high-class or low-class. The class helps decide the tone of a word:

middle ก จ ฎ ฏ ด ต บ ป อ · high ข ฃ ฉ ฐ ถ ผ ฝ ศ ษ ส ห · low: all the others

Thai has tones!

Thai has five tones — mid, low, falling, high and rising — so the same sound can mean different things. Four little marks above a letter help show the tone:

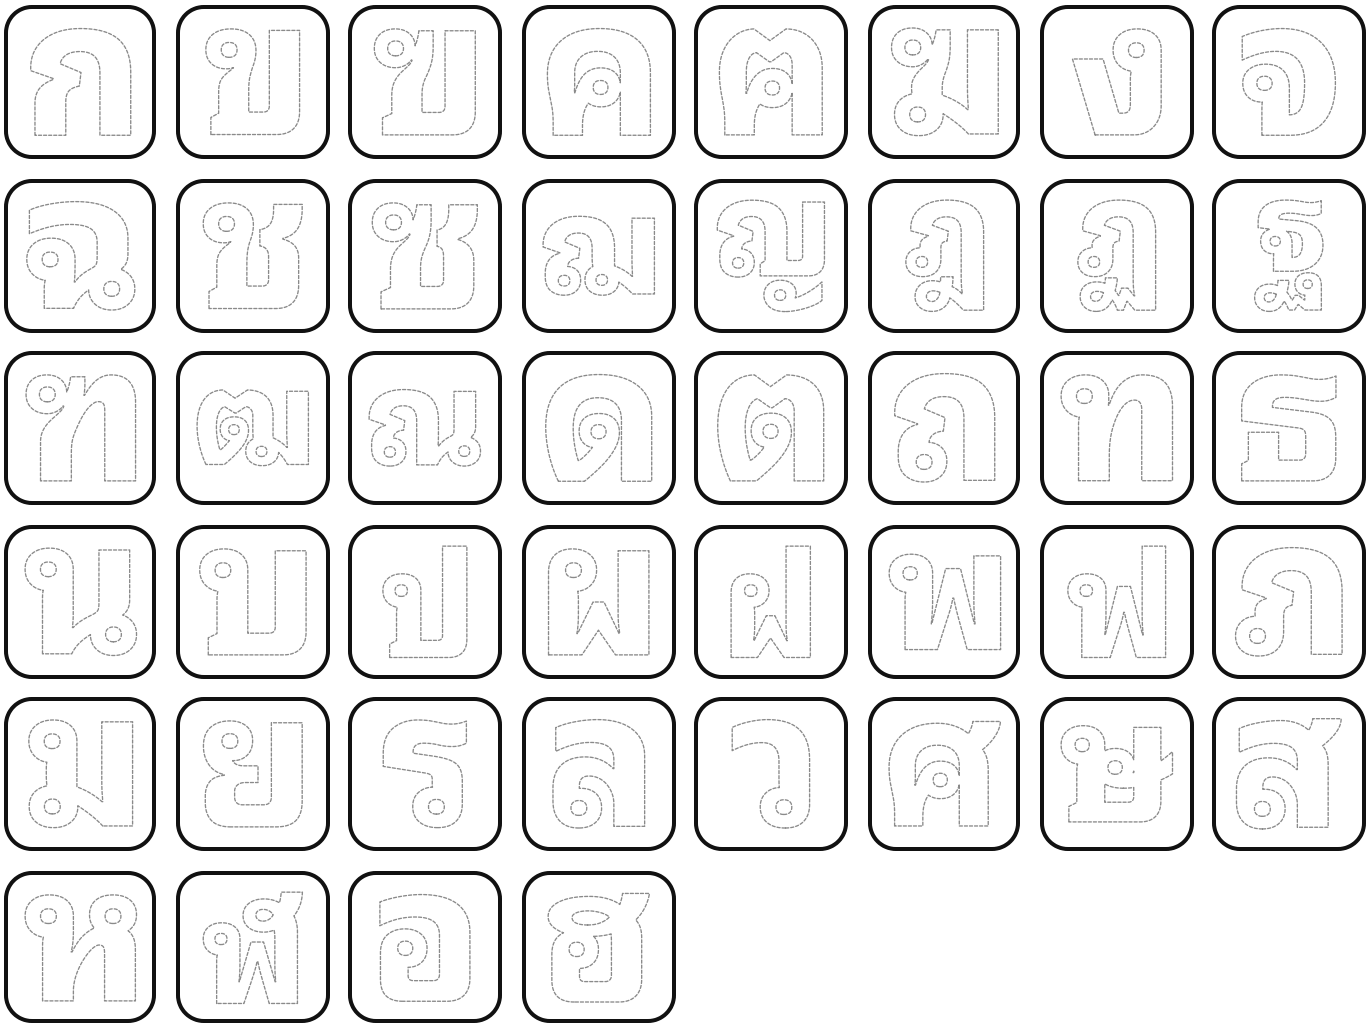

ก่ · ก้ · ก๊ · ก๋

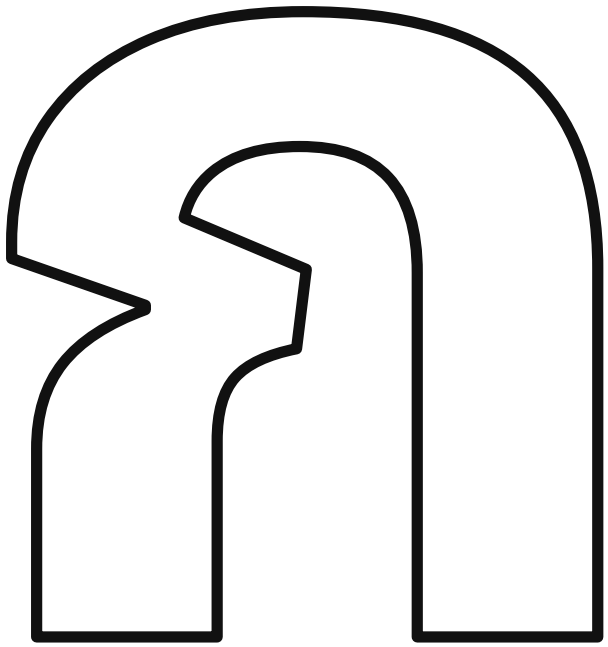

The English letters in this book cannot show tones: listen to a Thai speaker and copy the tune!

PENCIL WARM-UP

PART 2

The Vowels สระ

sa-ra — "the vowels"

Thai vowels are signs that sit around a consonant: before it, after it, above it or below it — and some go on two sides at once! This book has 19 main vowels.

The silent holder

A vowel sign can never stand alone. To write a vowel by itself, Thai uses the silent letter อ: อ + ◌า = อา aa. Every big letter in this part is a vowel sign sitting on อ.

Short and long

Many vowels come in pairs: a quick one and a long one, like อิ i and อี ii. In the English letters, a doubled vowel is long.

Spell it like a Thai child

Put a consonant and a vowel together and read them as one:

ก + ◌า = กา · ม + ◌ี = มี · ด + ◌ู = ดู

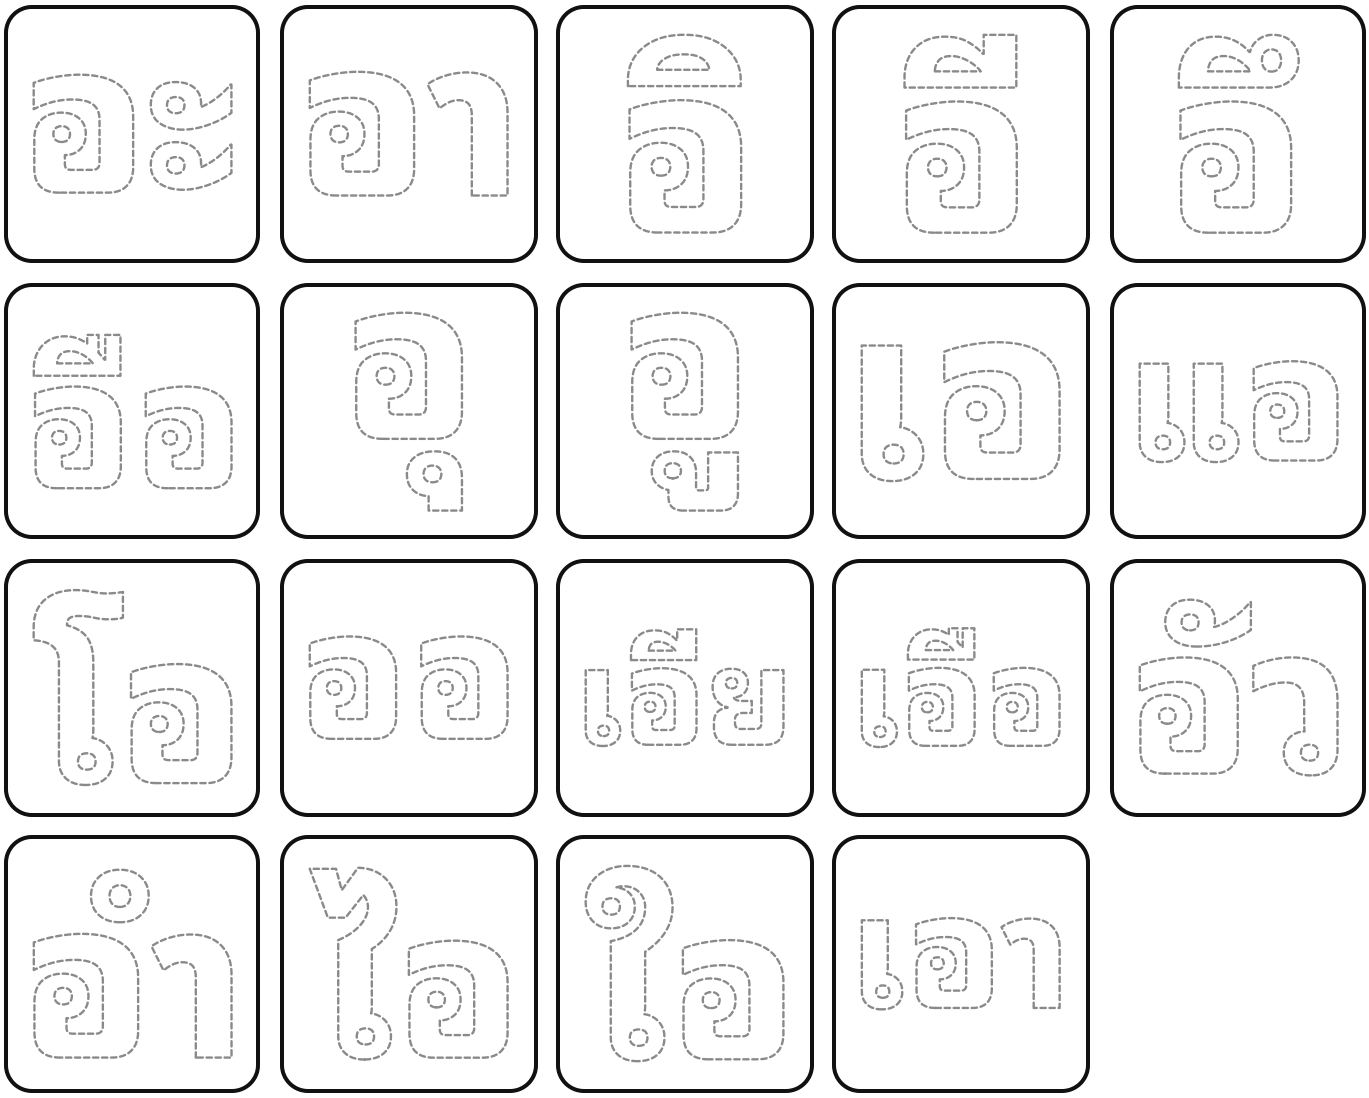

gaa · mii · duu

There are a few more vowels, too (like เออ oe and ฤ rue) — you will meet them as you read.

PENCIL WARM-UP

Trace the vowels สระ

Use a pencil. Say each letter's name as you trace it.
