ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 33 is Assyrian. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- Assyrian is read from right to left, like the Qur'an. The tracing rows on each page also start on the right.
- CAPITALS show the stressed part of the word: BE-ta means "say BE a little louder". Most Assyrian words are stressed on the last-but-one part.
- Doubled vowels are long: aa as in "father", ee as in "see", oo as in "moon". e is as in "bed", o as in "more".
- kh is a scratchy throat sound, as in Scottish "loch" or Arabic خ; q is a k said deep in the throat.
- Sounds follow the common modern spoken standard; families from different villages and towns may say some words a little differently.

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Assyrian name written in Assyrian (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. Because Assyrian letters change shape when they join, the third box shows the letter at the start, middle and end of a word (letters that never join to the next letter are marked).

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow modern standard spoken Assyrian (Sureth).

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Assyrian! ܣܘܪܝܬ

SOO-rit (Sureth) — the Assyrian word for the language

Who speaks it?
Several hundred thousand people speak Assyrian Neo-Aramaic. Its speakers call it ܣܘܪܝܬ Sureth.[3]

Where?
In villages and towns of northern Iraq, north-eastern Syria, north-western Iran and south-eastern Türkiye, and by families around the world, from the USA to Sweden and Australia.

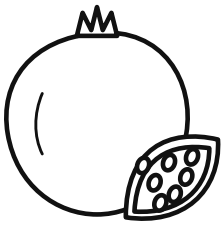

How is it written?
From right to left, in the Syriac alphabet. Most letters join to the next one, as in Arabic. This book uses the rounded Eastern style of the letters.

How many letters?
22 letters, in the same order as the old Arabic order abjad: alif, baa', jeem, daal…

Cousins: Aramaic and Arabic
Both belong to the same family of languages, so many words are alike: ܫܡܫܐ SHIM-sha and شمس shams (sun); ܡܝܐ MA-ya and ماء maa' (water).

A very old language
Aramaic has been spoken and written for about 3,000 years. Long ago it was used for letters and trade all across the Middle East.

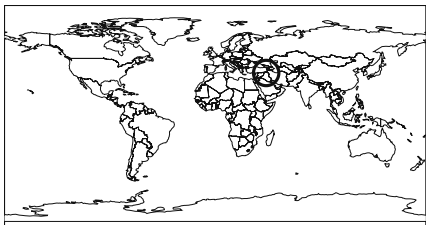

THE WHOLE ALPHABET

The Assyrian Alphabet ܐܣܘܪܝܐ

22 letters — ܢܐܘܬܐ

ܘ waw	ܗ heh	ܕ DAA-lat	ܓ GAA-mal	ܒ bet	ܐ AA-lap
ܕ LAA-mad	ܟ kap	ܝ yud	ܛ tet	ܚ khet	ܙ zen
ܣ SAA-deh	ܦ peh	ܥ eh	ܫ SIM-kat	ܢ noon	ܡ meem
		ܬ taw	ܫ sheen	ܪ reesh	ܩ qop

Read the alphabet from right to left, row by row — the same order as in this book.

Where is Assyrian spoken?

Color it: the land green · the seas blue. Find it: the dashed line shows the hills and plains where many Assyrian villages are. The language is also spoken in cities such as Duhok, Erbil, Qamishli, Urmia and Baghdad.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

The Letters ܐܬܘܬܐ

at-WAA-teh — “the letters”

Assyrian is written from right to left, in the Syriac alphabet. Open your book at any letter page and start reading on the right!

Letters hold hands

Most letters join to the letter after them, and their shape changes a little at the start, middle and end of a word. Each letter page shows the shapes.

ܫܡܫܐ = ܫ + ܡ + ܫ + ܐ

sh + m + sh + a = SHIM-sha (sun)

Eight letters never join forward

ܐ ܕ ܗ ܘ ܙ ܪ ܬ ܐ join to the letter before them, but never to the one after. Look for the small note on their pages.

Dots and marks

ܒ d and ܒ̣ r differ only in their dot: below or above. A small wavy mark under a letter makes a new sound: ܓ̰ j · ܟ̰ ch · ܙ̰ zh.

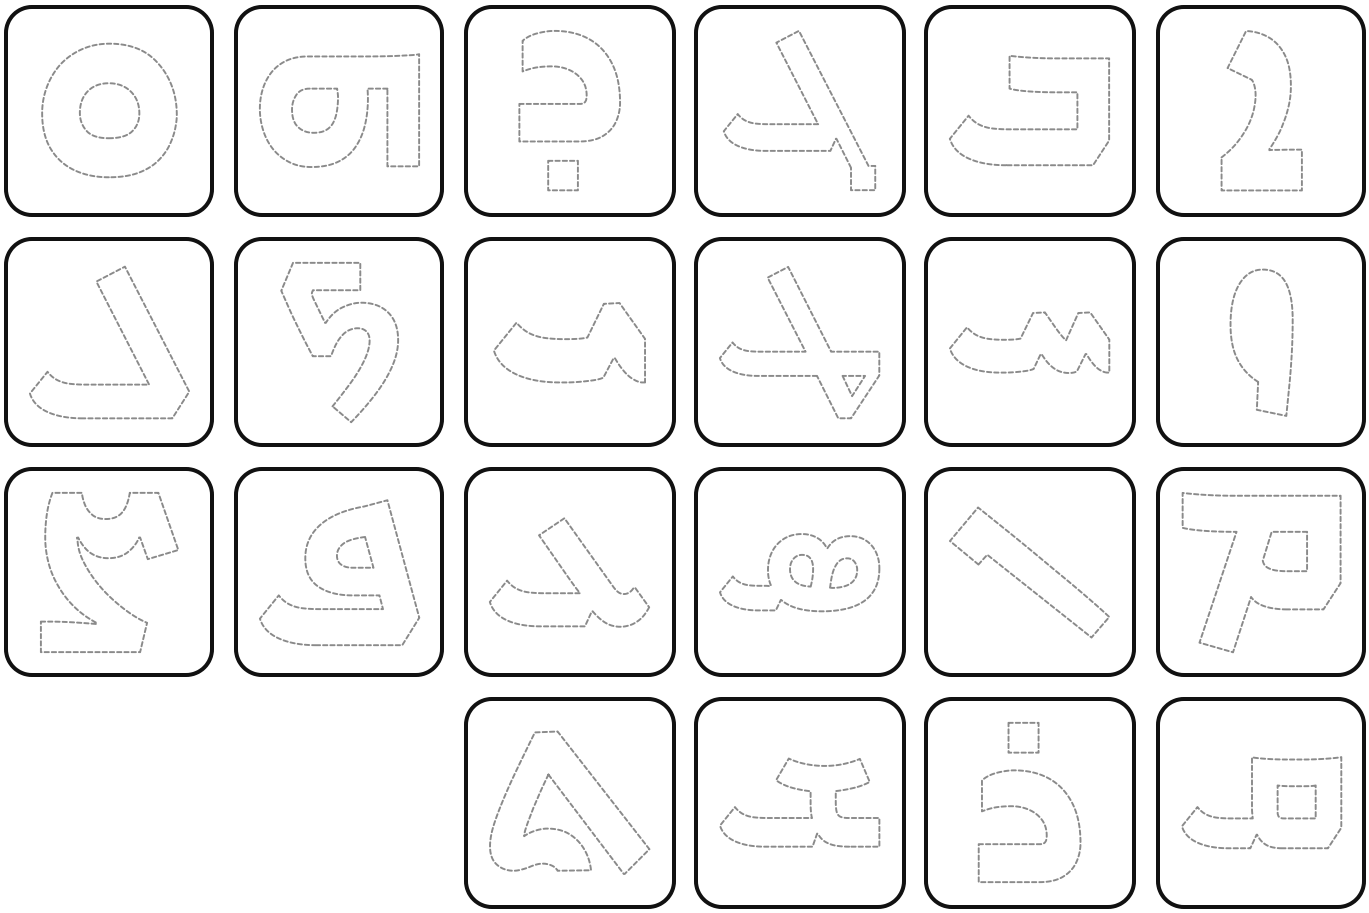

Where are the vowels?

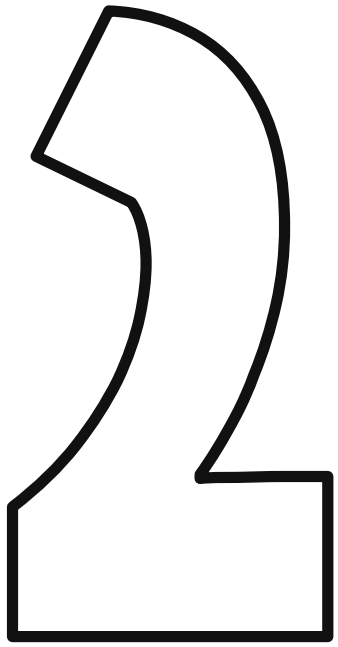

Vowels can be written as small dots above and below the letters. Everyday writing often leaves them out, so the words in this book are written without them — the English letters under each word tell you how to say it.
