ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 73 is Wolof. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- CAPITALS in the pronunciation show the syllable said a little more strongly; in Wolof it is usually the first one.
- kh in the pronunciation is the rough Wolof x, like Arabic خ; q is a deep k, like Arabic ق.
- uh is the Wolof ë, the soft vowel in "but". Double letters (dd, kk, ll) are held a little longer.
- Sounds follow the Wolof of Dakar, in the official Senegalese spelling.

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Wolof name written in Wolof (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Wolof syllables shows how the letter is named in class and its row of syllables (ba be bë bi bo bu), the way Senegalese children practise reading.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Senegalese (Dakar) Wolof in the official Latin spelling.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Wolof! Wolof

WOH-lohf — the Wolof word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 6 million people speak Wolof at home, and millions more use it every day in Senegal.[3]

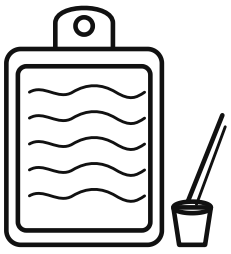

Where?
In Senegal and the Gambia, on the Atlantic coast of West Africa, and also in Mauritania.

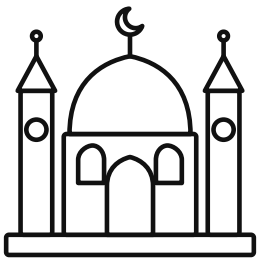

How is it written?

Written in Arabic letters too
For centuries Wolof has also been written in Arabic letters, called Wolofal (Wolof Ajami). Scholars wrote poems in Wolofal, and it is still learnt in Qur'an schools.

How many letters?
26 letters in this book, plus the accented vowels à é ó.

Did you know?
Most Wolof speakers are Muslim. The two Eids are called Korite (Eid al-Fitr) and Tabaski (Eid al-Adha), and the greeting is Asalaa maalekum!

Read the alphabet row by row — the same order as in this book.

Where is Wolof spoken?

Color it: the land green · the ocean blue. Find it: Wolof is spoken in Dakar, Saint-Louis, Touba, Kaolack and Banjul. The dashed line shows where most Wolof families live.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Letters araf yi

AH-rahf yee — “the letters”

This book teaches the 26 capital-and-small letters of the official Latin spelling, including three that English does not have: Ë, Ñ and Ŋ. H, V and Z appear only in borrowed words.

Little marks on vowels
à is a short, sharp a; é and ó are closed (like “day” and “go”); ë is the soft ‘u’ of “but”. A double vowel is long: ceeb, suuf.

Sounds you know from the Qur’an
X sounds like Arabic خ and Q like Arabic ق. Wolof has borrowed many words from Arabic too.

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Ëë. Color both!
