ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 84 is Aymara. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- CAPITALS show the stressed syllable: U-ta means "say U a little louder". Aymara usually stresses the next-to-last syllable.
- In this book i sounds like "machine" and u like "rule"; doubled vowels (aa, ii, uu) are the long vowels ä, ï, ü.
- h after a letter (kh, ph, th, chh, qh) means a strong puff of air; ' after a letter means a "popping" sound.
- q is a 'k' far back in the throat; kh after a vowel (as in SOKH-ta) is the rough throat sound of X; ly is the 'lli' in "million"; ny is the 'ny' in "canyon".

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Aymara name written in Aymara (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Aymara name · syllables shows how the letter is called (ka, kha, k'a…) and its row of syllables with the three vowels — the way Aymara is taught in school.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Central Aymara (La Paz and the Altiplano), official alphabet.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Aymara! Aymar aru

AY-mar A-ru — the Aymara word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 2 million people speak Aymara.[3]

Where?
On the high plains of the Andes around Lake Titicaca: in Bolivia, southern Peru and northern Chile.

How is it written?
In the Latin alphabet, from left to right, with marks for puffs of air (h), popping sounds (’) and long vowels (¨).

How many letters?
32 letters in this book: 3 vowels, 3 long vowels and 26 consonants.

High up!
Lake Titicaca lies about 3,800 metres above the sea — one of the highest big lakes in the world.

Did you know?
In Aymara, nayra means both “eye” and “the past”. The past is in front of you, because you can already see it!

Read the alphabet row by row — the same order as in this book.

The circle shows the Altiplano on the world map.

Where is Aymara spoken?

Color it: the land green · the ocean blue. Find it: Aymara is spoken in La Paz, Puno and Oruro, on the high plains around Lake Titicaca, and down to Arica by the sea. The dashed line shows where most speakers live.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

The Vowels vocalanaka

vo-ka-la-NA-ka — “the vowels”

Aymara is written with only three vowels: a, i, u.

Three vowels, five sounds
Next to the deep letters Q and X, i sounds like “e” and u sounds like “o”: quta (lake) is said “QO-ta”. You still write u!

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Aa. Color both!

PENCIL WARM-UP

Use a pencil. Say each letter's name as you trace it.

LONG VOWELS

Long Vowels jach’a vocalanaka

HA-ch’a vo-ka-la-NA-ka — “big vowels”

Two little dots on top make a vowel long: ä · ï · ü.

Hold it longer!
Say a, then say ä twice as long: aa. A long vowel can change the meaning of a word, so listen carefully.

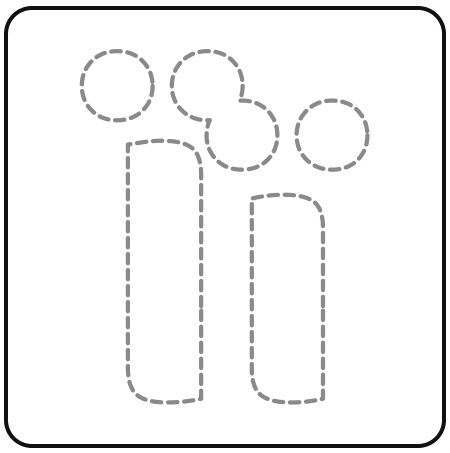

Inside words
Long vowels never start a word. They often appear where two vowels melt together: jichha + uru = jichhüru (today).

The Consonants consonantenaka

kon-so-nan-te-NA-ka — “the consonants”

Aymara has 26 consonants. Some are written with two or three letters: ch, ll and the families below.

Plain, puffy and popping
Many sounds come in threes. k is plain, kh has a puff of air, and k’ pops in the throat. The same goes for ch · chh · ch’, p · ph · p’, q · qh · q’ and t · th · t’.

J and X
j is a soft breathy ‘h’. x is a rougher ‘h’ made deep in the throat — it is not the English ‘ks’!

REFERENCES & SOURCES

Where our facts come from

[1] The Noble Qur'an — Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4, Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22 and Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13. Arabic text and meanings checked against Quran.com; the English meanings in this book are simplified for children.

[2] Map — outlines from Natural Earth (public domain), via the world-atlas data set.

[3] Language facts — speaker numbers from Ethnologue (SIL International), rounded.

What's next?
You have met all 32 Aymara letters! Keep practising by reading signs, books and food packets written in Aymara, and look out for the other books in the Allamahul Bayan Series, in shā' Allāh.
