ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 87 is Haitian Creole. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- CAPITALS show the stressed syllable: koh-koh-YAY. In Kreyòl the last syllable is usually a little stronger.
- ahn, ehn, ohn, oohn (with n after the vowel) mean "say the vowel through your nose".
- zh is the sound of Kreyòl j, like the 's' in "measure"; sh is Kreyòl ch.
- ay is a short, pure 'e' (Kreyòl e); aw is the open 'o' of "more" (Kreyòl ò).

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Haitian Creole name written in Haitian Creole (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Kreyòl name · syllables shows the name children say for the letter (B is «be») and its row of syllables: ba, be, bi, bo, bou. For vowels it shows them with consonants: ba, da, ka…

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Standard Haitian Creole spelling (the official alphabet in use since about 1980).

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Haitian Creole! kreyòl ayisyen

kray-OL ah-yee-SYEN — the Haitian Creole word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 12 million people speak Haitian Creole. Almost everyone in Haiti speaks it from childhood.[3]

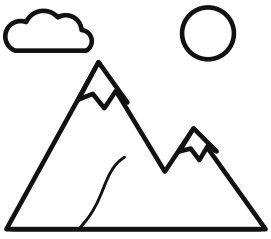

Where?
In Haiti, on the island it shares with the Dominican Republic in the Caribbean Sea, and in Haitian families in the United States, Canada, France and other countries.

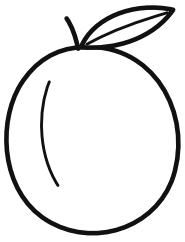

How is it written?
In the Latin alphabet, from left to right, with marks on è and ò.

How many letters?
32 letters and sounds: 24 single letters, 4 nasal vowels (an en on oun) and 4 letter pairs (ch ng ou ui).

Land of mountains
The name Ayiti comes from the island's first people, the Taíno: it means "land of high mountains". A Kreyòl proverb says Dèyè mòn, gen mòn — "Behind the mountains, more mountains!"

Did you know?
Most Kreyòl words come from French, with words from West African languages, Taíno, Spanish and English. Kreyòl and French are both official languages of Haiti.

COLOR THE MAP

Where is Haitian Creole spoken?

Color it: the land green · the sea blue. Find it: Kreyòl is spoken in Port-au-Prince, Cap-Haïtien, Gonaïves, Jacmel and Les Cayes. The dashed line shows Haiti, on the western part of the island.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Letters lèt yo

let yoh — “the letters”

Kreyòl is written with 24 single letters, plus 4 nasal vowels and 4 letter pairs: 32 in all.

One sound, one spelling
Kreyòl is written just as it sounds — no silent letters! It has no C, Q, U or X on their own: s and k do their work.

Watch the little marks
è and ò have a mark called an aksan. It changes the sound: e is “day”, è is “bed”; o is “go”, ò is “more”.

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Aa. Color both!

NASAL VOWELS

Nasal Vowels vwayèl nazal

vwah-YEL nah-ZAHL — “nose vowels”

Some Kreyòl vowels are said through the nose. They are written with an n after the vowel: an · en · on · oun.

Hum it!
Pinch your nose gently and say an: you will feel it buzz. The n is not said on its own — it tells you to send the vowel through your nose.

A tricky pair
When n must be said on its own after a nasal vowel, Kreyòl writes it twice: bannann, zanmann.

REFERENCES & SOURCES

Where our facts come from

[1] The Noble Qur'an — Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4, Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22 and Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13. Arabic text and meanings checked against Quran.com; the English meanings in this book are simplified for children.

[2] Map — outlines from Natural Earth (public domain), via the world-atlas data set.

[3] Language facts — speaker numbers from Ethnologue (SIL International), rounded.

What's next?
You have met all 32 Haitian Creole letters! Keep practising by reading signs, books and food packets written in Haitian Creole, and look out for the other books in the Allamahul Bayan Series, in shā' Allāh.
