ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 63 is Hausa. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- Hausa sound guides here have no capitals: Hausa does not stress syllables like English. Say every syllable evenly.
- Hausa is a tone language (the voice goes high or low), and it has long and short vowels — but neither is written in everyday spelling. Listen to a Hausa speaker to hear them!
- (gulped) means the sound is swallowed in (ɓ, ɗ); (popped) means a little pop in the throat (ƙ, ts); (squeezed) means a 'y' squeezed in the throat (y).
- c always says 'ch', and g is always hard as in "go".

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Hausa name written in Hausa (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Hausa name · syllables shows the letter's name and its syllable row (ba, be, bi, bo, bu) — the way Hausa children learn to read Boko.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Standard Hausa as spoken in Kano and written in Nigeria.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Hausa! Hausa

how-sa — the Hausa word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 80 million people speak Hausa — many of them as a second language for trade and travel.[3]

Where?
In northern Nigeria and southern Niger, and in market towns all across West Africa, from Ghana to Sudan.

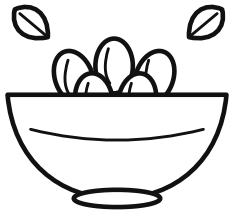

How is it written?
In Boko, the Latin alphabet, from left to right. For hundreds of years it has also been written in Ajami — Arabic letters adapted for Hausa — still used in many Qur'an schools.

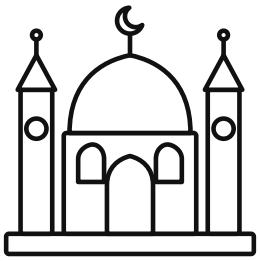

How many letters?
28 letters in this book, with the special hooked letters Ɓ Ɗ Ƙ Ƴ and the pairs Sh and Ts.

Up and down
Hausa is a tone language: the same letters can mean different things when your voice goes up or down. But tones are not written — you learn them by listening!

Did you know?
Hausa has many words from Arabic: littafi (book), masallaci (mosque), alkalami (pen) and lokaci (time).

Tt tah	Ts ts tsah (popped)	Uu oo	Ww wah	Yy yah	Yy yah (squeezed)	Zz zah

Read the alphabet row by row — the same order as in this book.

The circle shows Hausaland, in West Africa, on the world map.

Where is Hausa spoken?

Color it: the land green (or yellow for the desert in the north) · the ocean blue. Find it: Hausa is spoken in Kano, Zaria, Sokoto, Maradi, Zinder and far beyond. The dashed line shows where most Hausa speakers live.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Letters haruffan Hausa

ha-roof-fan how-sa — “the Hausa letters”

Hausa written in Latin letters is called Boko. It has 28 letters in this book, with four special ones: Ɓ Ɗ Ƙ Ƴ — look for the little hooks!

Hooked letters, special sounds
ɓ and ɗ are said while gulping air in; ƙ, ts and ƴ are “popped” in the throat. The hook tells you: this is not the plain letter!

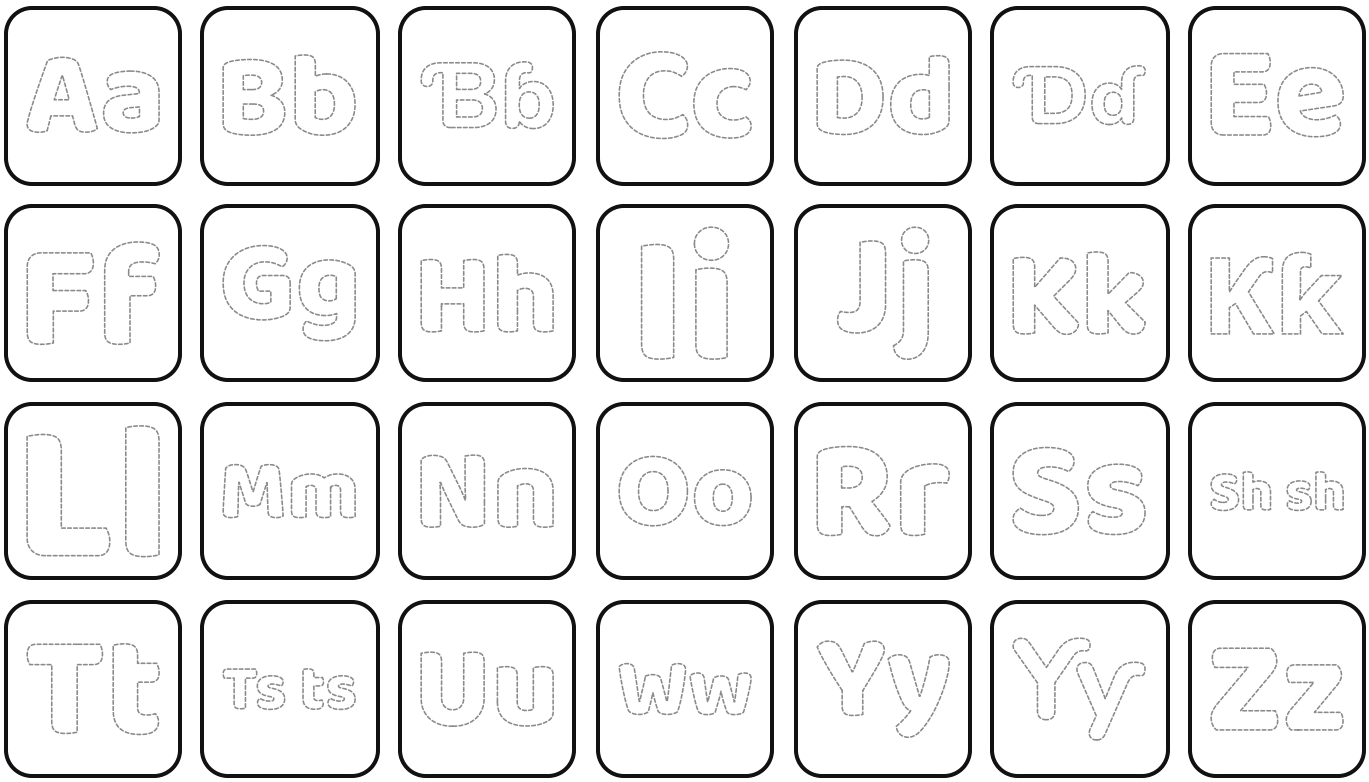

Two letters, one sound
Sh and Ts are written with two letters but count as one. The little mark ’ (as in na’ura, a’a) is a short catch in the voice.

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Ɓɓ. Color both!
