ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 27 is Arabic — the language of the Qur'an. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- Arabic is read from right to left, like the Qur'an. The tracing rows on each page also start on the right.
- Doubled vowels are long: aa as in "father", ee as in "see", oo as in "moon". Hold them for two beats, just as in Qur'an recitation.
- A dot under a letter (ṣ, ḍ, ṭ, ẓ) means a heavy sound said with a full, round mouth. ḥ is a strong, breathy h from the middle of the throat.
- ʿ stands for ʿayn, a squeezed sound deep in the throat; ' stands for hamza, a tiny catch in the voice, as in "uh-oh".
- th as in "three", dh as in "this"; kh and gh are soft throat sounds; q is a k said deep in the throat.

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Arabic name written in Arabic (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. Arabic letters change shape when they join, so the third box shows each letter at the start, middle and end of a word, and then with the three short-vowel marks (ḥarakāt): fatḥa a, kasra i and ḍamma u. A small note shows where a word on the page also appears in the Qur'an.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Modern Standard Arabic (fuṣḥā), the Arabic of books and close to the Arabic of the Qur'an.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Arabic! العَرَبِيَّة

al-ʿarabiyya — the Arabic word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 380 million people speak Arabic as a first or second language,[3] and Muslims all over the world read the Qur'an in Arabic.

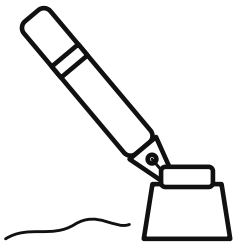

Where?
Arabic is an official language in more than 20 countries, from Morocco on the Atlantic Ocean to Oman on the Arabian Sea, across North Africa and West Asia.

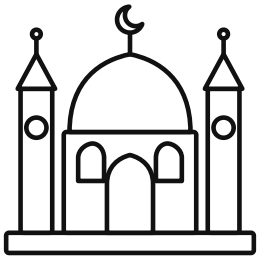

How is it written?
From right to left. Most letters join to the next one and change shape. The short vowels are little marks called ḥarakāt.

How many letters?
28 letters. Many of them share a shape and differ only in their dots: ب ت ث.

The language of the Qur'an
Allah sent down the Qur'an in Arabic: قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا qur'aanan ʿarabiyyan, "an Arabic Qur'an" (Surah Yūsuf 12:2).[3]

Did you know?
English has borrowed words from Arabic: sugar (سُكَّر sukkar), lemon (لَيْمُون laymoon) and zero (صِفْر ṣifr).

THE WHOLE ALPHABET

Read the alphabet from right to left, row by row — the same order as in this book.

The circle shows North Africa and West Asia on the world map.

Where is Arabic spoken?

Color it: the land green · the seas blue. Find it: Makkah ★, the city of the Kaaba, where the Qur'an was first revealed. Arabic is also spoken in Madinah, Cairo, Baghdad, Damascus, Muscat, Tunis, Casablanca and many more cities.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Arabic Letters الْحُرُوفُ الْهِجَائِيَّةُ

al-ḥuroof al-hijaa'iyya — "the letters for spelling"

Arabic is written from right to left, just like the Qur'an. Open your book at any letter page and start reading on the right!

Letters hold hands

Most letters join to the letter after them, and their shape changes a little at the start, middle and end of a word. Six letters, ا د ذ ر ز و, never join to the letter after them.

ب + ي + ت = بَيْت

b + ay + t = bayt (house)

Dots make the difference

Many letters share one shape and differ only in their dots:

ب ت ث · ج ح خ · س ش

Ḥarakāt — the little vowel marks

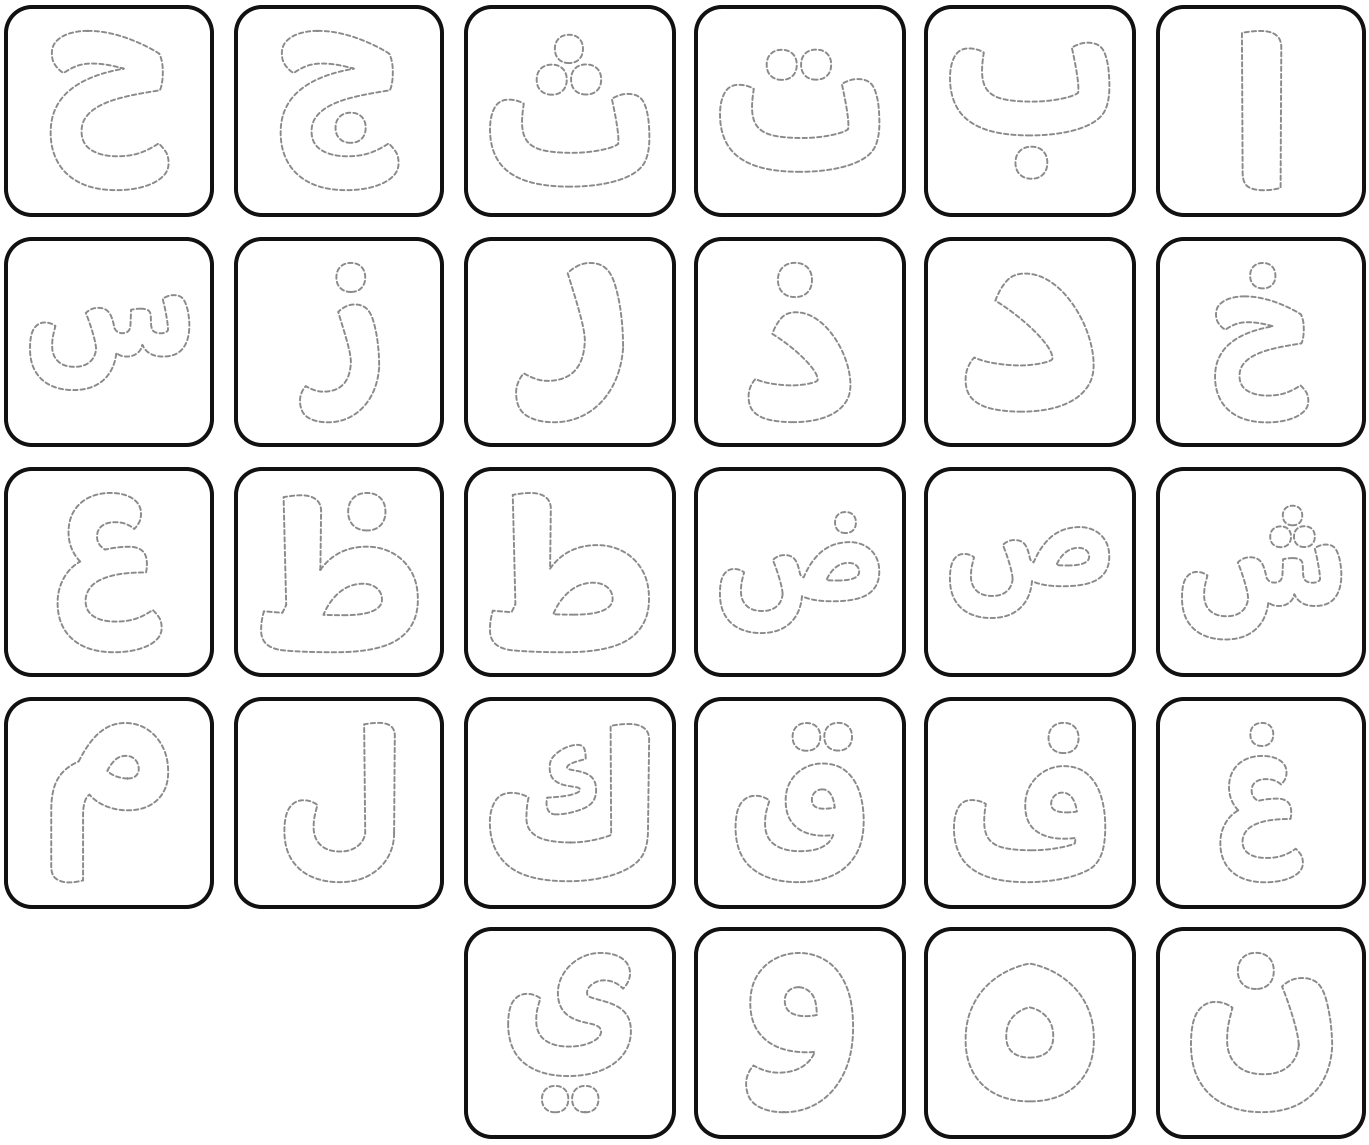

Arabic letters are consonants. The short vowels are tiny marks above or below a letter, called ḥarakāt. The muṣḥaf always shows them, and so does every word in this book.

بَ	بِ	بُ
fatḥa — a line above says a: ba	kasra — a line below says i: bi	ḍamma — a little waw says u: bu
بْ	بّ	بً بٍ بٌ
sukoon — no vowel قَلْب qalb (heart)	shadda — say it twice رَبّ rabb (Lord)	tanween — adds an 'n' ban · bin · bun
