ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 34 is Greek. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- CAPITALS in the pronunciation show the stressed syllable: MEE-lo means "say MEE a little louder". In Greek writing, the accent mark (΄) shows the same thing.
- dh is the soft 'th' in "this" (letter δ); th is the 'th' in "think" (letter θ).
- gh is a soft, throaty 'g' (letter γ); h is a breathy 'h' from the back of the throat (letter χ).
- ee as in "see", oo as in "moon"; e as in "bed", o as in "dog", a as in "father".

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Greek name written in Greek (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Greek letter name shows the letter's name written in Greek (Α is «άλφα», Β is «βήτα»...) and, for some letters, a letter pair that makes a new sound.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow standard Modern Greek as spoken in Greece.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Greek! ελληνικά

e-lee-nee-KA — the Greek word for the language

Who speaks it?
About 13 million people speak Greek as their first language.[3]

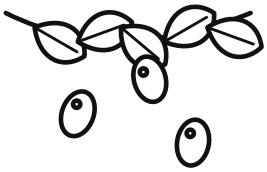

Where?
In Greece and Cyprus, and in Greek families all around the world.

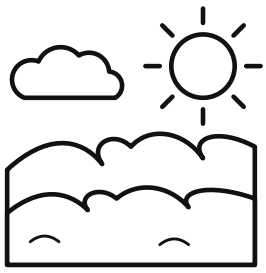

How is it written?
In the Greek alphabet, from left to right, with capital and small letters.

How many letters?
24 letters, from Α α (alpha) to Ω ω (omega).

Did you know?
The English word "alphabet" comes from the first two Greek letters: άλφα (alpha) + βήτα (beta)!

Letters in maths!
Scientists use Greek letters every day. The letter π (pi) helps us measure circles.

Read the alphabet row by row — the same order as in this book.

Where is Greek spoken?

Color it: the land green · the seas blue. Find it: Greek is spoken in Athens, Thessaloniki, Patras and on thousands of islands like Crete (Heraklion) and Rhodes. It is also spoken on the island of Cyprus, further east.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Letters το αλφάβητο

to al-FA-vee-to — “the alphabet”

Greek has 24 letters. Many of them look like English letters, but be careful: some look the same and say something different! B says ‘v’, H says ‘ee’, P says ‘r’ and X says a breathy ‘h’.

Five vowel sounds
Greek speaks only five vowel sounds — a, e, ee, o, oo — but it writes some of them in more than one way: η, ι, υ all say ‘ee’, and ο, ω both say ‘o’.

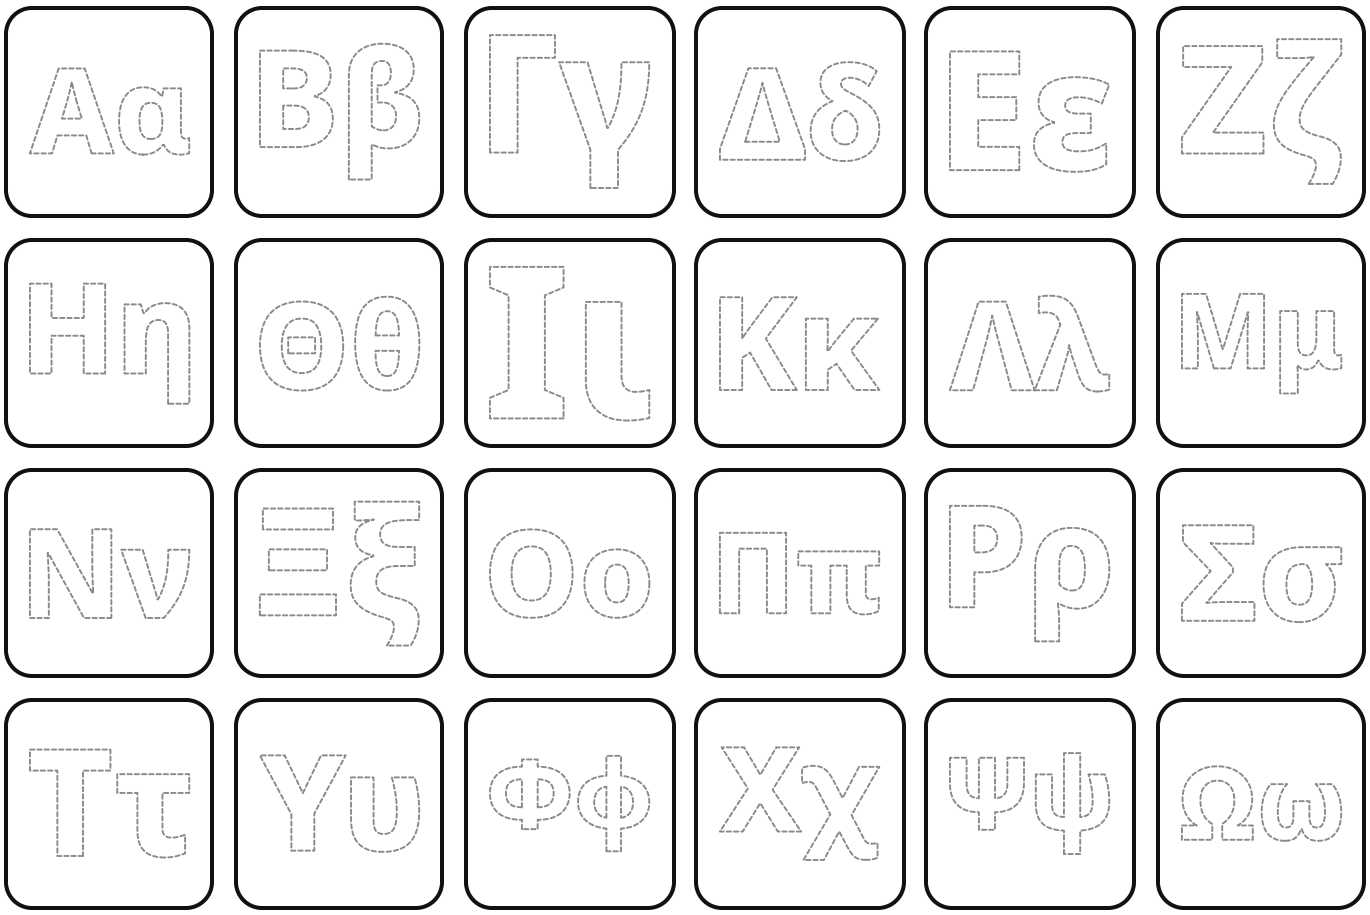

The little stress mark
Most Greek words carry an accent mark (΄) over one vowel: μήλο. It shows which part of the word to say a little louder: MEE-lo.

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Αα. Color both!
