ABOUT THIS SERIES

The Allamahul Bayan Series

عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ

ʿallamahul-bayān — "He taught him clear expression"

الرَّحْمَٰنُ ﴿١﴾ عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ الْإِنسَانَ ﴿٣﴾ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ﴿٤﴾

Ar-Raḥmān. ʿAllamal-Qurʾān. Khalaqal-insān. ʿAllamahul-bayān.

"The Most Merciful. He taught the Qur'an. He created the human being. He taught him clear expression (al-bayān)."

Surah Ar-Raḥmān 55:1–4[1]

Surah Ar-Raḥmān — the chapter of The Most Merciful — opens by naming some of Allah's greatest gifts to us. First, He taught the Qur'an. Then, He created the human being. And then, He taught him al-bayān.

What does al-bayān mean? It comes from an Arabic root that means to make something clear. Al-bayān is the gift of speech and understanding: being able to put what is in our hearts and minds into words, to explain, to listen, and to be understood. Animals make sounds, but only people were taught to speak, read and write in languages. Scholars of tafsīr explain that this gift is what lets us learn, teach and pass on guidance — including the Qur'an itself.

So every time a child says a new word, sounds out a letter, or writes their first line in a new language, they are using a gift that Allah Himself says He taught. That is the heart of this series: learning languages as a way of thanking Allah for al-bayān.

Languages and colours: two signs of Allah

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَأَلْوَانِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾

Wa min āyātihī khalqus-samāwāti wal-arḍi wakh-tilāfu alsinatikum wa alwānikum. Inna fī dhālika la-āyātil-lil-ʿālimīn.

"And among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variety of your languages and your colours. Surely in that are signs for those who know."

Surah Ar-Rūm 30:22[1]

In Surah Ar-Rūm, Allah tells us that the many languages of people and their many colours are among His signs. A coloring book that teaches a language brings both of these signs together in a child's hands: they meet a new language, and they fill its letters with colour.

وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا

Wa jaʿalnākum shuʿūban wa qabāʾila li-taʿārafū.

"...and We made you into peoples and tribes so that you may get to know one another."

Surah Al-Ḥujurāt 49:13 (part)[1]

Allah made us into many peoples so that we may get to know one another. Learning even a few letters of someone's language is a beautiful first step towards knowing them.

How each book in the series works

Every book introduces one language through English:

- where the language is spoken, with a map to color;
- every letter of its alphabet, with its name in the language itself and in English letters;
- simple English sound guides, so a parent who has never heard the language can still help;
- a word and picture for every letter, to color, trace and say out loud.

Book 62 is Swahili. More languages from around the world are in the series, in shā' Allāh.

FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

How to use this book

Begin with Bismillah, and go little and often: one letter a day is plenty for a young child. For each letter:

1. Say it. Read the letter's name and its sound guide together. Say it three times.
2. Color it. Color the big letter any way your child likes.
3. Trace it. Trace the dotted letters with a pencil, then try one alone in the empty boxes.
4. Meet the word. Say the word, color the picture, and talk about it in English.

Marker tip: every coloring page has a blank back, so colours cannot spoil the next activity. Slip a sheet of scrap paper behind the page you are coloring anyway — it keeps the next page clean.

Reading the English sound guides

- CAPITALS show the stressed syllable: a-SA-lee means "say SA a little louder". In Swahili the stress is almost always on the next-to-last syllable.
- m- and n- at the start of a word are said as a short hum: m-see-KEE-tee.
- gh is a soft gargle in the throat; th is "think", dh is "this".
- Every vowel is said on its own: ua is two beats, OO-a.

Three ways to see every sound

Each letter page shows the sound three ways: the letter's Swahili name written in Swahili (native phonetics), the same name in English letters, and an English sound guide. The box marked Swahili name · syllables shows the name Swahili children use for the letter (B is «be», CH is «che») and its row of syllables — the way Swahili is taught in school.

The pronunciation guides are simplified for young learners and follow Standard Swahili (Kiswahili sanifu) as taught in Tanzania and Kenya.

MEET THE LANGUAGE

Hello, Swahili! Kiswahili

kee-swa-HEE-lee — the Swahili word for the language

Who speaks it?
More than 70 million people speak Swahili — most of them learn it as a second language, so people from many different families can talk together.[3]

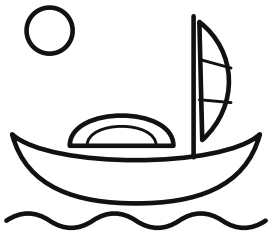

Where?
Along the East African coast and far inland: in Tanzania, Kenya, Uganda, the eastern Congo and nearby lands, and on islands such as Zanzibar.

How is it written?
In the Latin alphabet, from left to right. For hundreds of years before that, Swahili poems and letters were written in Arabic letters.

How many letters?
24 letters, plus letter pairs such as sh, ny and ng' for special sounds.

A name from the coast
The name Swahili comes from the Arabic word sawāḥil, "coasts". It began as the language of the seaside towns!

Did you know?
Many Swahili words come from Arabic: kitabu (book, from kitāb), msikiti (mosque, from masjid), dunia (world) and saa (hour, clock).

Read the alphabet row by row — the same order as in this book.

Where is Swahili spoken?

Color it: the land green · the ocean blue. Find it: Swahili is spoken in Lamu, Mombasa, Zanzibar, Dar es Salaam, Nairobi and all across East Africa. The dashed line shows where most Swahili speakers live.

This page is left blank on purpose, so your colours don’t bleed through. ✿

THE LETTERS

The Letters herufi za Kiswahili

heh-ROO-fee za kee-swa-HEE-lee — “the Swahili letters”

Swahili is written with 24 letters. It has no Q and no X, and C is only used in the pair ch.

Easy to read aloud
Swahili is written just as it sounds. Every letter is said — there are no silent letters — and almost every word ends with a vowel.

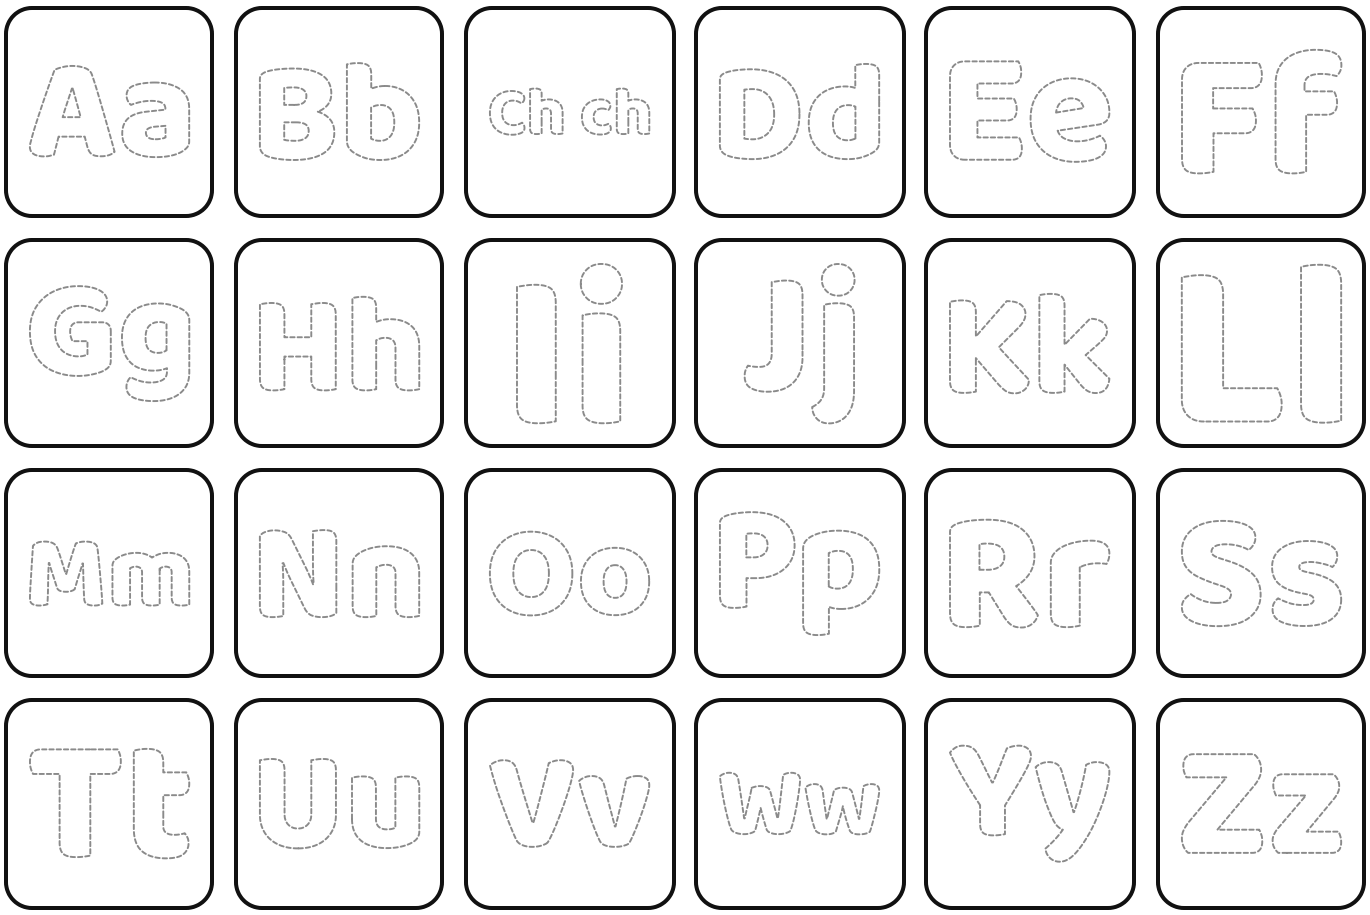

Five pure vowels
A E I O U always say ah, eh, ee, oh, oo. Swahili children learn to read by singing the syllables: ba be bi bo bu, cha che chi cho chu…

Big and small
Each page shows the capital letter and the small letter side by side: Aa. Color both!

LETTER PAIRS

Letter Pairs herufi mbili

heh-ROO-fee m-BEE-lee — “two letters”

Some Swahili sounds are written with two letters together. You already know one of them: ch.

Six more pairs
dh · gh · ng’ · ny · sh · th — each pair makes one sound. Many of these sounds came into Swahili with words from Arabic.

Watch the little mark!
ng’ (with the mark) sounds like the end of “sing”; ng (no mark) sounds like the middle of “finger”.
